 LISTENING 	 INVENTING 	 PERFORMING
Keep listening to (and watching) as many of your favourite songs and pieces of music whenever you can as it will help you relax and cheer you up.	How did you get on inventing a piece of music? It doesn't have to be on an instrument. You could make up a new song. You could use a tune you already know and sing new words. Try singing about your favourite foods or cartoon characters.	Sing a new song you have learned to the people in your house. Why not perform the song that you invented?
Use music you already have at home on CD/MP3 or find something new on YouTube, Spotify or ask Alexa. Get an adult to help make you a "playlist" of the music you most listen to. Add in a couple new things.	If you didn't manage to or still want to make your own musical instrument, here are some ideas. https://feltmagnet.com/crafts/Music-Instruments-for-Kids-to-Make	If you have a musical instrument at home, or if you have made your own, why not put on a Concert for your family? Get other people you live with to join in too.
Did you listen to something Scottish last week? Try this- you might even recognise the players. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IOQuAwQMamg	After listening to the Scottish music clip, invent a piece of Scottish Music. Quite a lot of Scottish music uses 5 notes. These are the same as the black notes on the piano. Make your music skip and jump like a Highland Dancer. Here is a "virtual" keyboard to use if you need one. http://www.igorski.nl/application/websid/	Perform the Scottish Music you invented. Don't forget to give it a name. You could even get dressed up and wear something Tartan to perform.
Get someone to help you find the "One World: Together at Home" Concert on BBC iPlayer. It was on BBC1, Sunday 19th April. You can watch and listen to a lot of famous musicians.	For the activity above, you can use the keys on a laptop or computer keyboard to help you. 2 3 5 6 7 9 0 These are set out like the black notes.	Send me a photo or a short video of anything you have done. I'd love to see how you are getting on. Don't forget to add your Name, Class and School. gw08mconochieona@glow.sch.uk
